 It was lost.
 You've experienced our family at ATHS
 And your contribution will not go Unappreciated.
 To our friends, we thank you.
 To you, we give a bit of ourselves.
 To you, we dedicate our yearbook.

Don't they look cute!

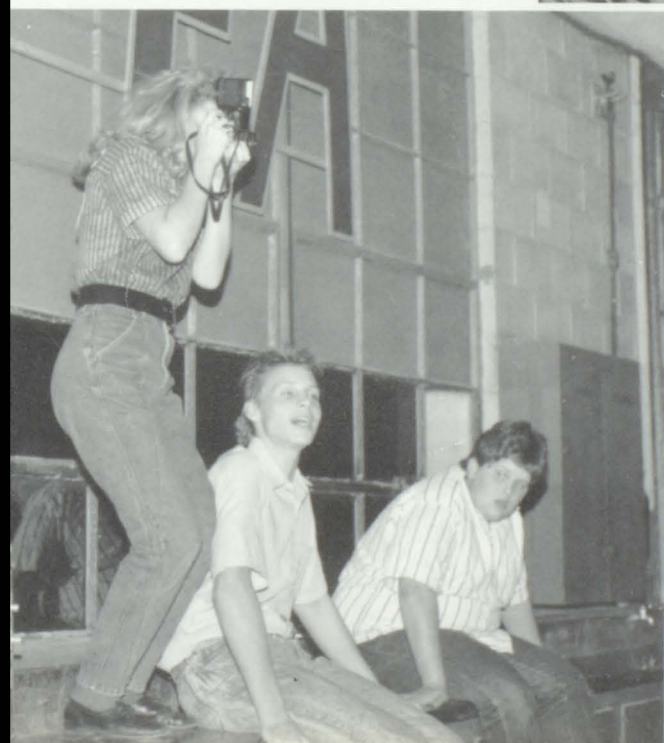

Who's the fairest of them all?

Sadie Hawkins Dance

Dance the night away ...

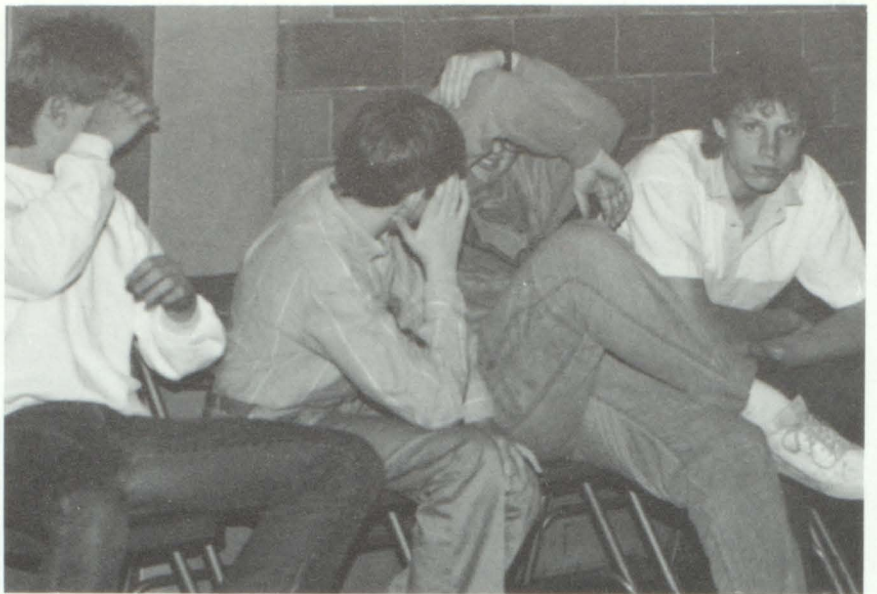

What are they scheming up now?!?

OOH LA LA!! Look at me!

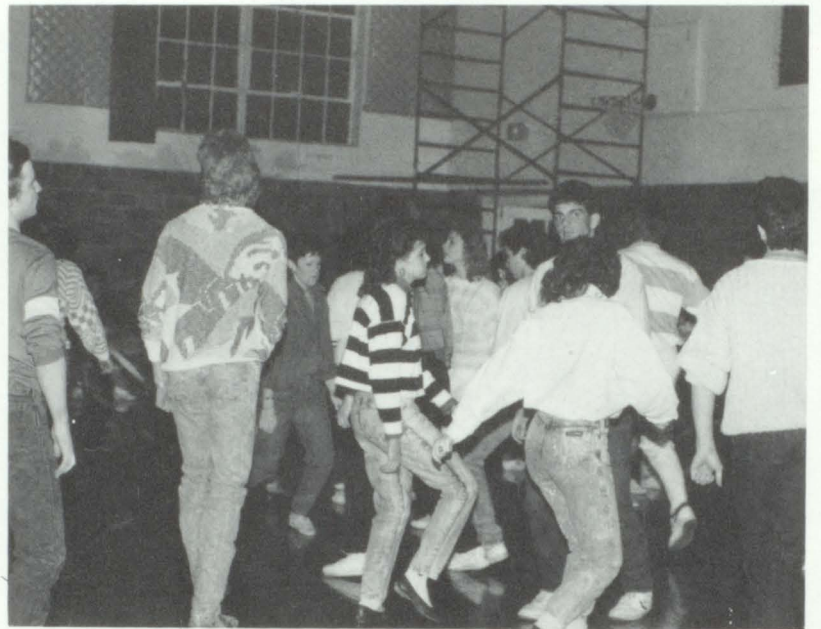

Are you shy boys?

Now Alinda, we practiced before the dance!

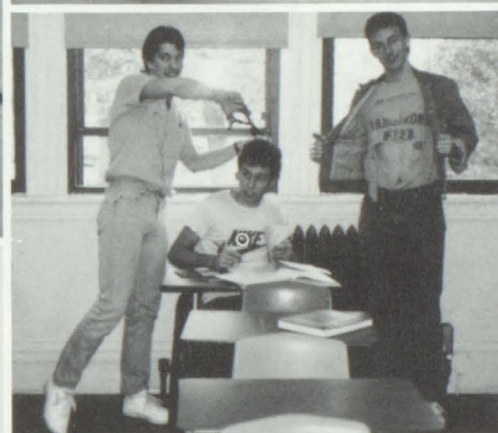

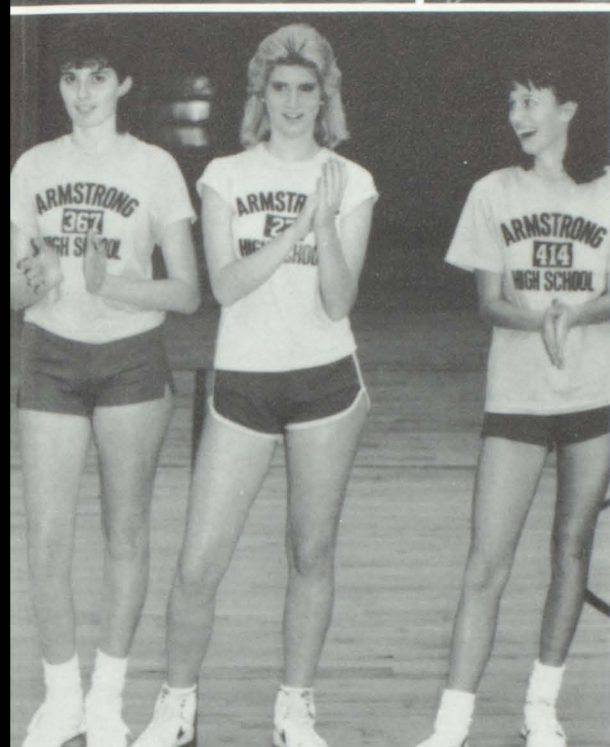

Who are you staring at now Michael?

Yes sir, that's us,—THE SIX MUSKETEERS!

Kevin, down for the "attack!"

Michael is SERIOUSLY thinking about asking Stacy for AN-OTHER dance.!

1987 Homecoming

In My Dreams

Kristy Roberts and Darren Loschen enjoying their reign as Queen and King.

1987 Homecoming Deemed a Success

The 1987 Homecoming Queen and King were Kristy Roberts and Darren Loschen. Those included in the court were freshman attendants, Vicki Jarboe and Jonathon Blackford; sophomore attendants, Ranae Zindars and Kevin Foster; junior attendants, Stacy Frerichs and Michael Johnson; and the 1986 Homecoming Queen and King, Denise Buck and Bryan Schluter. The other senior candidates for Queen and King included Missy Gildersleeve, Amy Pflugmacher, Doug Frerichs, and Rick Huls. Melissa Schluter and Garla Camp were the emcees for the evening's activities.

RATED 10

Rated 10 made their debut at Armstrong High School just after the closing tour with INXS. They have been an opening act for Brian Adams, Cutting Crew, and Kenny Loggins. They took time off to visit AHS and talk to the students about drugs and alcohol. They showed their concern through some good ol' ROCK-N-ROLL.

CONGRATULATIONS

Is this how the CLASS FLIRTS, Amy and Greg, always sit in the lunch room?

Typical situation for the BEST SENSE OF HUMOR, Darren and Alinda.

SENIORS'

Looking at home in the executive suite are Darren and Kristy, MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED.

Doug has the right idea but Missy tries to show a better style for BEST DRESSED.

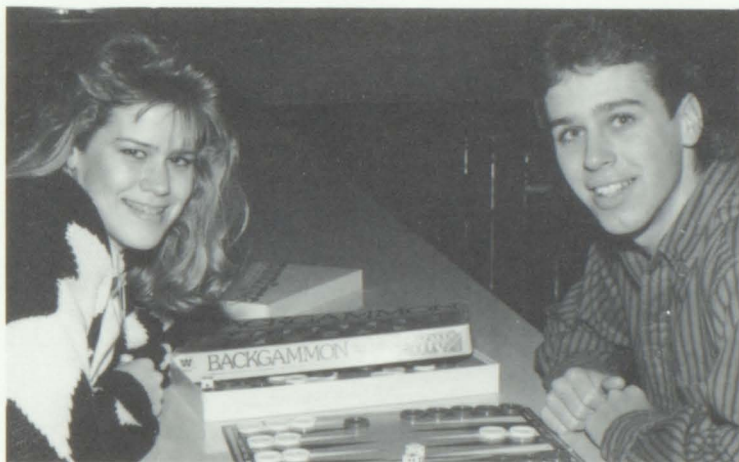

MOST OUTRAGEOUS, Missy and Brian, are so . . . so . . . so . . . you decide.

One CLASS CLOWN, Alinda, wants no part in sharing the jokes with the other, Charlie.

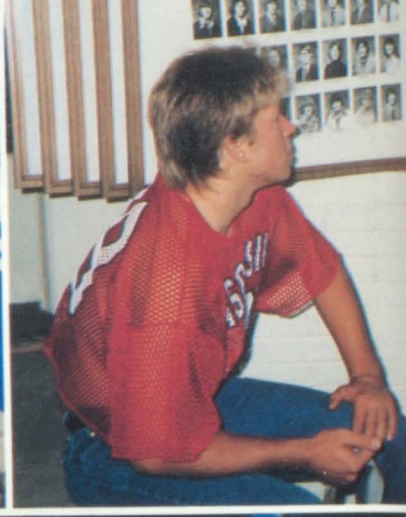

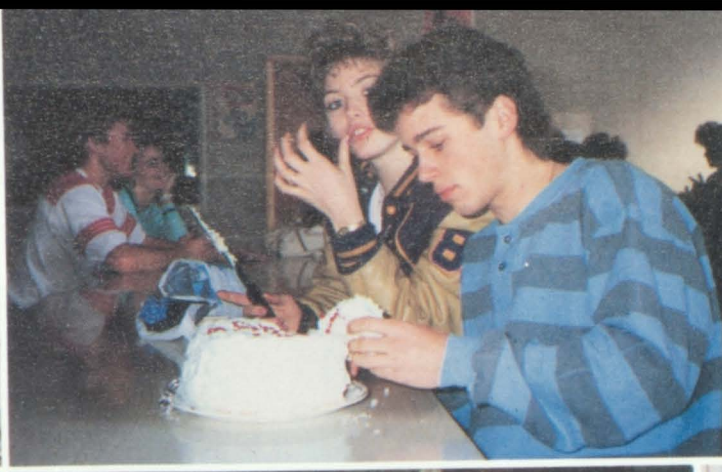

CHOICE

MOST ATHLETIC, Amy and Darren, try brains over brawn—will it work?

Tammy, Deon, and Amy, MOST QUIET, "No, we don't have a word to say!"

It Takes All Kinds

... Really, Miss Bohlen, I did read my book!

... Mrs. Roberts expects me to type 50 words a minute by the end of the year! I'm praying for at least 20.

... You're kidding! I could have sworn I was in study hall this hour, or was that last year. I can't seem to remember anything!

... Last year's frogs weren't too bad, but I can't believe Mr. Hornbeck expects me to work with SHARKS??

... You mean I'm in a class with all freshmen! Is it too late for a transfer, Mac?

... Honest, officer, I did not see the red light!

... Gee, Coach, you mean I have to play basketball this year?

... Mrs. Herman, how should I know how fast I'm going? I'm watching the road!

... What ... more proofs?? Mrs. Knight, can't we have class just one day without proofs.

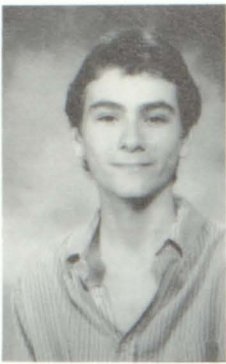

... Wonder if there is a freshman that will ask me, a silly sophomore, to go to the Freshman Dance so it won't cost so much!

... Mrs. Raab, we'll try our best to follow recipe directions and know the difference between melted and softened butter.

ATHS had some excellent skilled individual players this year. Mrs. Herman, the coach, states, "I was very proud of my outstanding volleyball players, especially some of the seniors who will be missed next year." She is also looking forward to a better varsity season next year with this year's juniors and sophomores.

Armstrong's varsity volleyball record was 5-12 and junior varsity record was 5-8. Varsity placed third in the Bismarck Round Robin Tournament. Although the season wasn't even at .500, there was much enthusiasm and sportsmanship throughout the season.

The image features a minimalist design on a light cream background. It consists of several overlapping rectangles with dark outlines. The top rectangle is tilted and contains the year '1988'. Below it, a larger rectangle is tilted more steeply and contains the word 'ORGANIZATIONS' in a bold, sans-serif font. At the bottom right, there is another tilted rectangle, which is empty. The overall composition is dynamic due to the various angles of the overlapping shapes.

The work we have to do . . .

Ready for the challenging year.

To all ATHS Students and Faculty:

This year was quite unusual in the back corner of the Accounting Room where the 1987-88 TROJAN was created. It was an emotional time full of excitement, worry, anticipation, happiness, and sadness. Throughout the year, events were scheduled, ballgames were won, students created memories, and pictures were taken to relive it all. Finally, the 1987-88 year came to a close; the yearbook staff's job was done. All the students said goodbye for the summer, and some seniors said goodbye forever. Graduates are sad to see their friends go, but leaving ATHS for more challenging lives meant joy for many of them.

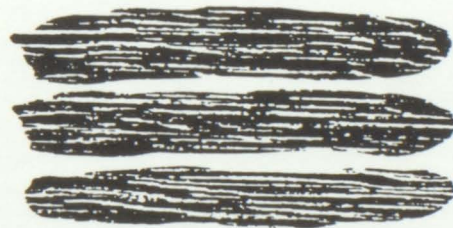

This 1987-88 TROJAN is a 96-page summary of these times and feelings in our lives. We, as a yearbook staff, tried to submit a photo of everyone and tried to capture as many of these unforgettable memories as possible. We hope we succeeded.

On behalf of the staff, we would like to thank our advisors, Mrs. Knight and Mrs. Roberts. A thank you is also extended to all the other faculty members who allowed us to interrupt their classes by taking photographs, etc. And to the terrific staff, thanks for your cooperation, ingenious ideas, and the extra effort it took to produce this year's annual.

STAND STUDENTS TAKING A NEW DIRECTION

Advisor: Ms. Miller

Earlier this school year, the English IV students who were practicing roundtable discussions, began to debate our school's need for a drug awareness/student support group. Originally just an idea, the students began to think seriously about the project. Illinois schools are offered $100 to help them begin these types of programs, so it was decided to take advantage of this funding. A group was selected from the two English classes to organize this club, and the first steps were to discuss possible topics for meetings and choose a title for the organization. In an attempt to get some student input, the group placed two boxes in the study hall and urged students to submit topic or activity ideas and title suggestions. A $10 prize prompted a good response for the title box, and from these entries, the group selected the name STAND (Students Taking a New Direction). Ms. Bohlen submitted the winning entry.

The new organization held its first official meeting on Tuesday, March 1. The speakers were Chad Stevens and Maureen Paraventi of WLRW, who presented a program on the dangers of smokeless tobacco. The second and final meeting of the year was held on May 6 and featured Mike Boose and Debbi Simmers who presented their program on drinking and driving.

STAND, which plans to provide both drug awareness and student support, hopes to continue into future years.

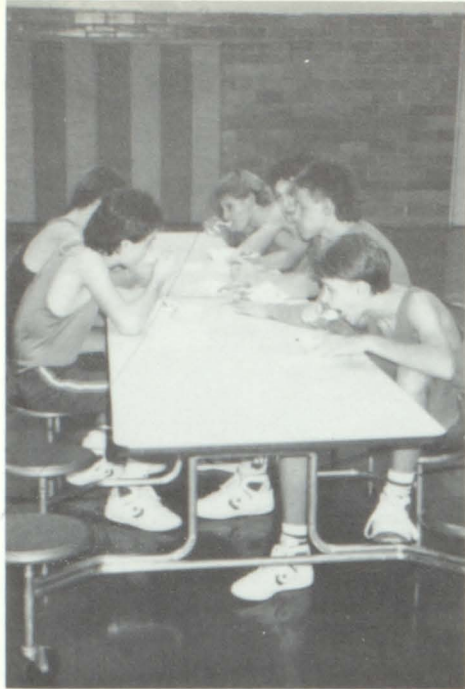

Guest speakers teach some serious business.

A few officers just "standing" around.

John Cook,

Congratulations and best wishes in Florida.

Thanks for all those GREAT times in P.E. It won't be the same without you.

Remember September 4 and October 8. WE will be looking forward to it.

Have fun in college and NEVER forget us!!!!

Love,

Dusty and Sara

Well sis, you've finally made it. I'm going to miss you next year when you're gone.

I wish you the best of luck with college, marriage, and life.

Thanks for everything you've taught me. Don't ever forget all the great times we've shared with each other!

I love you, Rhonda!

Love,

Ranae

Kerry,

Good luck in the future, we wish you joy and prosperity.

With all our love,

Mom & Dad

Missy,

In 1970 I rocked you in my arms and dreamed of what 1988 would be like for you.

The years have past so quickly and you have been more than I ever could have dreamed back then.

You are a beautiful person and I don't mean just on the outside. You have made my life beautiful.

Keep on smiling, keep on shining.

Wherever you go, my love goes with you.

Every night I thank God for sending me you.

Mom

Amos,

My dear Amy Buddy who is such a great tickler—Thanks! Due to the fact that we always had so much to share with each other must not have left us much time to pose for pictures—because I couldn't find one. Whenever something strange would happen to me, I always knew I could go to my Amos because I knew you could relate or had already experienced it. It all started with Jay and Neil and FOR NOW we're ending with Mark and Spank who both prove to be wonderful. (Must be the age.) You know how bragging always brings trouble though. "Quit it" "You know one of those—Well—you know," "Ya! that" Thanks for sharing all that—even in the library. "Erin, we're busy in here!" Through all of our deep discussions and even a few trips down Sheri's stairs, we are survivors. I wish you the best of luck and never forget me Amos. I'll miss you. Thanks for being special.

Love ya,

Erin

Brian,

CONGRATULATIONS!

You made it! Have fun in everything ya do. I wish ya the best.

Good luck with Ellen and best of luck racing in Danville.

Love,
Your sister, Dusty

Sheri,

Thank you for being the dear friend you have been. I can't imagine how my life would have been without you in it. You seem to bring the excitement. Thanks for the pizzas, McDonalds, and for sharing your Dave Bean, the 4th hour P.E., memories, powder, the Stever-Daver, shopping trips, colored tennis shoes, "Where do I go?", all the noon snacks, and for our Sadie Hawkin's memories with Jay. Also, I must say you are quite the golfer. How about our prom memories and Mark. Whether we were in Springfield or Paxton, we always had fun. You have played such an important part in my life, Sher-Bear, and I yub you for it all. Never forget me honey and always remember Nushen can stop us from bein' Twinks. I guess one never realizes how important TRUE friends are until they're gone. I'll miss you Sheri.

I Love Ya,
Ern

Amy, Missy, Sheri,

The times we shared at "our table" are some of my best memories. Thanks for the laughter and tears; the jokes and counseling. Sheri, you always knew how to brighten my day or at least give me a chocolate fix! Missy, you always had the answer and were ready to slide-dive-and hurt each other. Amy, what can I say? You livened up my Junior year. Don't forget the Royal, St. Joe, or Penfield boys! I would like to leave all of you with this:

If you treasure the beauty
that shows all around you
and try to add some of your own,
Enjoy the companionship others can give you,
yet value your moments alone . . .
If you honor opinions that differ from yours
yet stand up for what you believe,
Admire the accomplishments others have made,
and take pride in what you can achieve . . .
If you love those around you and love yourself,
too,
if your spirit is eager and free . . .
Then you know that it means to live life to its fullest and be the best "you"
you can be.

Amanda Bradley
I love you all
and will miss you dearly
Lori

Missy,

Thank you for being the sweetheart you are and for all the wonderful times we've shared. I am so proud of you and I'm glad you were my friend. (Can you imagine our attitudes enemies???) Scary! Your life has so much in store for you. You are a very lucky girl. You are a beautiful person who I just happened to be close to. Actually, I was the lucky one. How about "This is a family place," our white boots, hairspray, and the list is endless . . . It seems we never got all our goals accomplished. We were always brewin' something more. All I can say is good luck in everything life brings you. Never forget our past. Missy—you hold a very special place in my heart and "I won't forget you—ma massmallow." Until now, I never really realized—"We had it all." Oh ya and About Last Night . . . It's better to had lost a love, than to never have loved at all." "Just like how you're gold when you're a kid."

I love you forever,
Erin
